Activity 1: Test Case Generation

To validate that whether user can select either "Admin" or "Project owner" role.

To validate the functionality of username with valid inputs.

To validate the functionality of username with invalid inputs.

To validate the length of username.

To validate the functionality of Email.

To validate that the email format should be correct.

To validate that duplicate email are not allowed.

To validate that signup message sent to registered mail.

To validate the functionality of password.

To validate the length of password

To validate that password should be not visible when writing.

To validate that the password only visible when clicking on eye button.

To validate the functionality by keeping all fields empty.

To validate the functionality that signup button should be disabled without filling any fields.

To validate signup message sent to registerd mail.

To validate the functionality of Facebook button.

To validate the functionality of Google button.